Republican Defeat in Virginia

What it Means for the Conservative South

The defeat of the Rino Republican candidate for governor of Virginia serves as an important object lesson for those of us who want to see our Southern heritage honored and preserved for future generations. It also serves as a warning to those of us who want to see a return to limited federalism enforced by we the people of the Sovereign States.

Southern heritage proponents should never “hitch their hopes” on the national, state or local Republican Party. They are all “Party Boys & Girls” seeking to rise in the ranks of the Party. They intentionally avoid “controversial” issues such as Confederate heritage or any effort to restore local self-government via a return to the Constitutional principle of real States’ Rights. Their primary aim is to obtain and then retain elected political office. They are no different than scalawags, Vichymen and Quislings from another era—they betray their homeland in order to curry favor with the ruling elite of the occupying powers.

Conservative Southerners who want to reclaim a limited federal government should recognize the fact that the Republican Party is dedicated not to reclaiming limited federalism but to protecting the status quo, the ruling elite, most often referred to today as “the swamp.” They will always favor and therefore select candidates who will be a “team player.” They will willingly sacrifice an election rather than allow “we the people” to elect an outsider who wants to restore limited federalism, lower taxes, smaller government and remove the influence of crony capitalists (donor-class) from national, state and local government.

We the people of the South are slowly being removed from the American society. Lincoln and his co-conspirators initiated the effort to exterminate as many Southerners—black and white—as possible and thereby fulfill the Yankee dream of exterminating the South’s political power. The effort to exterminate our people continues. It remains for us to initiate a counter attack; to come up with an organized effort to implement a strategic plan that will result in our final victory.
Or we can keep doing what we have always done and get the same results!

Don't Be A Pacified Southerner

A pacified Southerner is politically conservative, believes in the Constitution, low taxes, limited government, border security, Biblical morality, and an end to no-win wars. Yet, this same individual cannot bring him/herself to admit that the current Federal government does not support any of his basic principles. This individual meekly swears allegiance to “one nation indivisible” even though the very concept of an “indivisible” nation is the very opposite of what the founding fathers had in mind when they seceded from the “indivisible” British Empire and established a Constitutionally limited Republic of Republics—the original and legitimate United States of America. The pacified Southerner refuse to acknowledge the fact that the original Constitution and its Republic died when Lincoln and his co-conspirators invaded and conquered the peaceful, democratically elected nation the Confederate States of America.

Pacified Southerners falsely believe that they are still citizens of America’s original Republic. They do not understand that the current supreme Federal government is not a Republic but it is a financial, commercial, and political empire controlled for the benefit of its ruling elite. They do not understand that they are subjects of an empire and citizens of a captive nation—the CSA. Understanding this fact is the first step in seeking and eventually applying the solution.

Shadow governments in every Southern State!

Wall Street Journal Says—No Free Speech = No University Funding

In an opinion article published in one of this month’s issues of the Wall Street Journal the author noted that free speech is an essential element in a free society. The Federal government alone provided upwards of $38 Billion to American Universities and other educational institutions in 2015. This is taxpayer money but it is being used by left wing administrators and professors to brainwash America’s young people and turn them into anti-free market, anti-limited government brain numbed minions of leftwing ideology. Add to the Federal taxpayer dollars all the State and local taxpayer dollars used to maintain these leftist re-education camps and you begin to realize that Americans are now tax slaves to the progressives, liberals, secular humanists and socialists.
<https://www.wsj.com/articles/colleges-should-protect-speech-or-lose-funds-1509402305>

Part of the work of a shadow government would be to lobby in each state legislature for a law requiring every education establishment receiving taxpayer funding to allow for fair and balanced treatment of our Southern heritage in classrooms and guest speakers. The degree of “fair and balanced” treatment would be established by those holding positive views of the traditional South, the original Constitution and free markets. All of this is detailed in Dixie Rising—Rules for Rebels.

With the right organization and leaders and 5 to 10 people in every county—we will be in control!

“Hit them where they ant!”
Irregular Political Warfare
The ONLY Answer

General Forrest knew that the South could not win against the better supplied and more numerous North by using traditional Napoleonic tactics. He was not encumbered by an excellent West Point education—an education that stressed traditional military tactics. General Forrest was a natural fighter who understood that when you are faced with overwhelming forces you must do the unexpected—you never give your better equipped opponent the battle they want but you give them the battle you want.

[Artist: John Paul Strain]

Unfortunately, the leaders of our Southern heritage movement have never learned this lesson and are following the example of the Confederacy’s West Point educated leadership—as they “lead” us to our own modern-day Appomattox! We will live to see the day when the Yankee Empire finally realizes its aim of completing cultural genocide down South. “Working behind the scene” to produce a few tactical, i.e. temporary, victories will not bring about the final vindication of the Cause for which our ancestors fought. Remember that the wonderful tactical victory won at First Manassas did NOT result in a strategic victory for the South! In like manner, winning a local fight to save one monument will not bring about the replacing of those already destroyed and prevent others from being removed; nor will it prevent our opponents from coming back next year with yet another political effort to remove our “saved” monument! Leaders who can only plan for tactical victories are leading us to final defeat. It is time to set in motion a revolution that will result in a strategic victory. Defeatism often masquerades as optimism—unfounded optimism. It helps to keep the people quiet while the enemy prepares for the final solution. Pretending we are winning is suicidal. See Pacified Southerners on page 2.

As pointed out in Nullification: Why and How (available as a free pdf download from our web site http://www.kennedytwins.com/Nullification\_Book\_2012.pdf ) we cannot win in a traditional political battle but we can win by doing an “end run” or “out flanking” the ruling elite in Washington, D.C. A more detailed explanation on how to conduct irregular political warfare can be found in Dixie Rising—Rules for Rebels.

The major strategic failure of Southern leadership since 1865 has been its inability to recognize the fact that we the people of the South are not free! The government we live under was NOT established on the American principle of the “consent of the governed” but was forced upon the South by the compulsion of bloody bayonets. As such it is an illegitimate government—no different in principled from the government the British Empire imposed upon the Irish after one of its many failed attempts to establish home-rule for Ireland. Failure to constantly denounce the ruling order as illegitimate and void of legal & moral standing is a failure to defend the principle of Freedom! The simple fact is that the South was fighting for Freedom while the North was fighting for slavery—they won and turned the South into a colonial possession of the Yankee Empire.

Goodbye Star-Spangled Banner

As the Kennedy Twins have been saying since the publication of The South Was Right, the leftist attack upon the South is more than a flag fight. Recently, the California NAACP demanded that the 'Star Spangled Banner' be replaced because in its third verse it speaks detrimentally of slaves who deserted their masters and fought against the United States in the War of 1812. An online petition for a change in the National Anthem also states the anthem should be changed because it is a "racist," sexist, and "aristocratic" song <https://www.change.org/p/the-congressional-black-caucus-change-america-s-national-anthem-from-the-star-spangled-banner-to-america-the-beautiful-a-civil-rights-issue> .

Once you allow anything Southern to be removed, censored, or destroyed because of the "sin of slavery," you have set yourself and the nation up for defeat on any subject that can even remotely be associated with slavery. Confederate monuments must be removed, Confederate Flags must be concealed, and even Southern accents have to be replaced because of their pollution with the "sin of slavery." America, driven by the progressive neo-Marxists and applauded by America's conservative talking-heads, has fully embraced the notion that the "sin of slavery" is a Southern sin and therefore all things Southern must be removed from society. But the neo-Marxists, being much smarter than the neo-conservatives, understood that once they had established the concept of the "sin of slavery" in the mind America, they could then take the next step.

In the article just cited (<https://www.change.org>) the ground work has been laid for the trashing of the Declaration of Intendance and ultimately the Constitution. How long can the South survive when no one on our side is making an effort to counter the movements of the neo-Marxists? A quick reading of the articles about changing the National Anthem demonstrates the historical ignorance of neo-Marxists. They are not just wrong, they are blatantly wrong. But here is the problem, just like defending Southern heritage, we always win the history contest hands down but we lose on the political level. Southerners, we live in a "political" society not a "history" society. As was once said by John Randolph of Roanoke, "We must combine to resist, and that effectually, these encroachments, or that little upon which we now barely subsist will be taken from us."

Left wing extremists who control the media, educational and political establishment continue to spread the liberal lie that conservatives—and especially Southern conservatives—are vile racists full of hatred and just looking for an opportunity to act on those alleged hate-filled emotions. Yet, it is the left that is actively taking on the role of Nazi brown shirts using violence to shout down conservative speakers, mob violence to prevent opposing views from being heard and threatening or actually setting pipe bombs in order to prevent “Civil War” reenacting from taking place. A review of the short list of actual violence or threats of violence, made by liberals, progressives, or BLM supporters will demonstrate who are the real haters.

- New Orleans, Louisiana, September 2017 black man arrested for threatening to kill all white people <http://www.breitbart.com/big-government/2017/09/16/louisiana-man-arrested-allegedly-threatening-kill-white-people/>
- Baltimore, Maryland, May 2015 50 black teenagers beat white man when he asked them to get off his car. His medical expenses were estimated to be as high as $400,000 <http://www.breitbart.com/big-government/2015/05/12/50-teens-beat-white-man-to-a-pulp-for-asking-brawling-girls-to-get-off-his-car/>
- New Braunfels, Texas, November 2017 shooter was an atheist who thought Christians were stupid <http://www.breitbart.com/texas/2017/11/05/report-texas-church-shooter-atheist-thought-christians-stupid/>
- Washington, D.C., November 2017 black man arrested after making threats to kill all white policemen

Folks reading this understand that it is the Antifa types and their media facilitators on the left who are the purveyors of hatred—yet this knowledge remains within our relatively small group! If we were correctly organized with leaders who have a vision for ultimate victory, then this information would become common knowledge throughout the South!

Radio Free Dixie—the Voice for A Captive Nation

Recent polling has demonstrated that upwards of 70% of Southerners want to keep our Confederate monuments—a very substantial minority of black Southerners agree! Why are we loosing? Again, it goes back to a failure of our leadership to put forth and enact a plan for strategic victory.

In Dixie Rising—Rules for Rebels the concept of mass South-wide communication is explained. An important part, but only a part, of this mass effort is to establish a chain of local talk and country music radio stations on which we will purchase one-minute spot ads to alert our people about the evil forces attacking us and inviting them to access our social media to learn more about their heritage and the ongoing fight for their freedom. But of course, this will not happen until we the people organize and initiate the fight for Freedom

Christianity and the Confederacy

The recent horrific attack upon a church in Texas and the very negative response by the liberal media to the call for prayer, should make it obvious that our enemy hates Christians. As soon as the call for prayers for those hurt by this attack where made, the liberal establishment began its ridicule of those of us who believe in prayer. Neo-Marxists of all stripes wasted no time in ridiculing those of us who cling to our “guns and Bibles.”

One point that all Southerners should understand is that those who hate Christianity also are the very ones who hate all things Confederate. The neo-Marxists assault upon the South is being led and promoted by the same people who demand the removal of the Ten Commandments, promote all forms of abortion, advance the “gender neutral” bathroom rights for perverts, and of course demand the confiscation of all guns. The truth is that we are in a gigantic cultural war with the ultimate design of removing the last vestige of free government in America. With this in mind, one can only wonder why we in the Southern Heritage movement have not taken the offensive and make common cause with those who may not be Southern Nationalists but do understand that a common enemy need to be defeated. But of course, that would mean we would have to do something different than what we in the Southern Heritage movement have been doing for the past 50 years!

Louisiana

ORGANIZE OR DIE

At the recent Shadow Government-Project 2020 Summit in Baton Rouge, Louisiana there was general enthusiasm about the possibility of establishing a Shadow Government in Louisiana. We already have a meeting established with a Tea Party group in the 4th Congressional District for February. There is also interest in holding a meeting in the 5th Congressional District.

Note the fact that we are making our initial organizational efforts in Congressional Districts. Once the District is organized then we will organize each Parish within that District. As pointed out in Dixie Rising—Rules for Rebels Southern conservative activists can virtually control the state legislature—as it relates to issues that are necessary for our Cause. We can do it with five to ten activists in each Parish.

Shadow Governments Can Do What Southern Heritage Organizations Can Not Do!

The concepts of “shadow governments” and “irregular political warfare” are by their very nature “political.” Many of the larger Southern heritage organizations have a 501c3 Federal tax-exempt status and therefore are very hesitant to engage in “political” activities for fear of losing their tax-exempt status. While this is understandable, it is also a major flaw in our efforts to not only defend but to restore our heritage of freedom—the very thing our Confederate ancestors fought to defend.

What our Southern heritage leadership has failed to understand is that we are NOT engaged in a flag or monument fight! Our Confederate flags and monuments were not removed because our history is incorrect but they were removed by state and local politicians who understood that they were engaged in a political fight. The truth of our history is meaningless to politicians, even “good” politicians! Why? Because a politician’s sole aim in life is to first gain political office, then maintain himself in political office and eventually expand his political office. For a politician history is good only if it helps the politician to fulfill his political goals—history is bad if it threatens his political goals.

The question our Southern heritage leadership should be asking is “How can we make the truth about our Southern history good for those politicians who consistently support us and bad for those politicians who do not support us?”

Southern States

ORGANIZE OR DIE

There were folks attending the Summit from Louisiana, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi. The Kennedy Twins invite those who attended and those who were not able to attend to begin the effort in your state. We suggest—but it is your state, you decide—that you hold a meeting in a central location within a specific Congressional District. It could be a day meeting, such as the one in Baton Rouge, or a simple evening/night meeting.

We will be glad to attend and present one or more of the 50-minute power point presentations we presented at the Baton Rouge Summit. For meetings out of Louisiana we only charge our travel and hotel expense.

Each state should stand on its own. The Kennedy Twins are not trying to establish an organization other than in Louisiana.
